DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the wherein the segments comprise at least two recesses or bearing eyes for the reception of locking members or locking pins must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 14 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In claim 14 on lines 3-4, the applicant says “which segments (5) bear protrusions (6) and groove-like recesses along their circumference” but in Figure 1 the circumference of the segments could be around the segment so there would be protrusions and recesses along the top and edge that faces the central actuating rod. Also in claim 14 on lines 9-11, the applicant says, “wherein the segments (5) that are arranged in the direction of the circumference of the lid (1) are pivotably supported on the lid (1) by a swivel arm (16), separate from the displacement actuator, being interposed,” but the applicant does not say where the swivel arm is interposed. Is it between the segments and the displacement actuator? Or is it somewhere else?

In claim 19, the applicant says, “wherein the segments (5) are connected to the lid (1) to be adjustable in an axial direction of the pivot axis (14) in the height direction” but the applicant does not say what the height direction is of in the claims. Is the height direction of the segment, the pivot axis, or something else?

Art Unit: 3781

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 14, 19-21, and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

6. Claim 14 recites the limitations "the axis", "the locked position", "the brim", and "the displacement actuator" in lines 3, 5, and 6 of claim 14. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.

7. Claim 19 recites the limitation "the height direction" in the last line of claim 19. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

8. Claim 20 recites the limitation "the axle" in the second line of claim 20. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

9. Claim 21 recites the limitations "the axle" and "the axis height" in the second and third lines of claim 21. There is insufficient antecedent basis for these limitations in the claim.

10. Claim 26 recites the limitation "the actuating members" in the second line of claim 26. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

11. Claims 27-29 are allowed.

12. Claims 15-18, and 22-25 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

13. Applicant is duly reminded that a complete response must satisfy the requirements of 37 C.F. R. 1.111, including: "The reply must present arguments pointing out the specific distinctions believed to render the claims, including any newly presented claims, patentable over any applied references. A general allegation that the claims "define a patentable invention" without specifically pointing out how the language of the claims patentably distinguishes them from the references does not comply with the requirements of this section. Moreover, "The prompt development of a clear Issue requires that the replies of the applicant meet the objections to and rejections of the claims." Applicant should also specifically point out the support for any amendments made to the disclosure. See MPEP 2163.06 and MPEP 714.02. The "disclosure" includes the claims, the specification and the drawings.
